Draw-Based Game Tickets can be verified by any Retailer on any National Lottery terminal to check if a Ticket is a winner. Alternatively, Participants can check their own Ticket on the National Lottery app or, in many instances, on a Ticket checker machine where available at a Retail Outlet. A Ticket checker is also available on the National Lottery app.

Scratch Cards

Participants will know instantly if they have won a cash prize(s) on a Scratch Card Game. Details on how to win are printed on each scratch card. When the Participant logs into their account, a notification will be displayed informing them of their winnings.

7. Procedure to protect the identity of a Person who has won a prize in a Lottery Game

PLI at all times respects the wishes of every prize winner in relation to being a 'public' or 'private' winner.

For top tier prizes or jackpot wins up to and including €1,000,000 the location of the Retail Outlet where a winning jackpot Ticket has been sold is released to the media after each jackpot Draw. For top tier prizes and jackpot wins above €1,000,000 the Retail Outlet is not revealed for up to 48 hours after the Draw. To further protect the winner's identity, PLI does not release information indicating the time that a Winning Ticket was sold by a Retailer.

Further, no action will be taken by PLI which might reasonably lead to the identity of a prize winner being disclosed, without his or her written consent or as otherwise required by law or legally binding regulatory, administrative, governmental or other requirement.

PLI requires that its Retailers and their staff/employees do not make any public comment which may disclose to any person (other than PLI) the identity of any prize winner or any person who the Retailer is aware is entitled to a share in a prize or any information whereby the identity of the prize winner can be ascertained. Failure to adhere to this will be deemed a breach of the Authorisation under the Retail Sales Agent Compliance Policy. Repeated breaches may lead to a termination of that Retailer's Authorisation.

8. Prohibition on giving any inducements to prize winners to agree to the disclosure of their identity

No inducement of any sort shall be offered to prize winners in order for them to agree to the disclosure of their identity.

9. Reasonable steps to maintain the dignity of prize winners who have agreed to the disclosure of their identity

PLI will only release the identity of a winner after he/she has consented in writing to have his/her identity revealed.

No inducement of any sort is offered to prize winners to speak publicly when they have consented to the disclosure of their identity.

When a winner decides to speak publicly about their win, PLI's Public Relations Team manages the press conference and advises each winner on what to expect from the media, and the subsequent media process. All requests for photographs or interviews with the winner that come via the PLI Public Relations Team will be conducted with the consent of the winner, with the aim to ensure all public or media interactions are performed in a dignified manner.

Where a winner is considered a vulnerable person, PLI will liaise with the winner and his/her immediate family/guardian/carer to identify and ensure the most suitable arrangements are put in place in order for the winner to experience their win in safe and protected surroundings.

Procedures to be followed in the event of invalid or disputed claims.

In the event that a dispute arises about a Winning Ticket, a claim form or the payment or awarding of any prize, PLI may withhold payment of the prize until a decision has been reached.

Where a claim is affected by a bona fide accident or other circumstances beyond the Participant's control, PLI will investigate the circumstances in question on a case by case basis and will make a determination giving consideration to all material facts.

All disputes are investigated on a case-by-case basis by PLI. The format of any investigation will depend on the individual circumstances of the claim.

There may be situations where a winner cannot attend PLI, National Lottery Headquarters to claim their prize. When this situation arises, the following procedure must be followed before the prize claim will be processed:

PLI is committed to operating the National Lottery in a socially responsible way. Our aim is to provide exciting and engaging National Lottery Games that bring fun and entertainment to everyone, while ensuring that Participants play responsibly and within their means.

Some of the ways we work to ensure that National Lottery Games do not encourage excessive or underage play include:

- All new National Lottery Games are subject to a "Responsible Gaming Assessment" to ensure that they are consistent with the requirements of PLI's Responsible Gaming and Player Protection policies;
- All Game Rules specify that a Participant must be over 18 years. The Terms and Conditions, Game Rules and prize rules within the Game Rules for all National Lottery Games also clearly specify that no prize will be paid to a minor;
- Once a National Lottery Game has been designed, PLI ensures that its advertising strategies do not target persons under 18 years of age or those on low income or present winning in a way that is seen to be a way out of financial difficulties or as an alternative to work, and that all National Lottery advertising complies with our Advertising & Promotion Code of Practice;
- The marketing and advertising of all National Lottery Games must also comply with the requirements of the Advertising Standards Authority for Ireland, which is committed to promoting and enforcing the highest standards in advertising, promotional marketing and direct marketing, in all Participants' interest;
- A programme of responsible play awareness training is provided for employees. We also communicate on a regular basis with our Retailers, highlighting the importance of responsible play, and provide responsible play training via the Retailer portal;
- The National Lottery website also offers practical guidance for Participants who are concerned that gaming may be playing too large a part in their lives or the life of someone close to them. A "Responsible Play" page is provided on our website and contains information about playing responsibly as well as resources available to vulnerable Participants;
- PLI recognises that for a minority of people, playing within their means can be difficult.
- PLI will provide assistance to the Regulator relative to counselling services relating to compulsive, addictive or excessive play.
- People who need to talk to someone about problem gambling are directed on our website to contact <https://dunlewey.net/> helpline 1800 936 725, <https://www.problemgambling.ie/>, the National Gambling Helpline 1800 753 753; www.gamblersanonymous.ie or telephone Gamblers Anonymous Dublin on (01) 8721133, Cork 087-2859552, Galway 086-3494450, Tipperary 085-7831045 or Waterford 087-1850294/ 086-2683538.
