The total number of persons who may be authorised to sell Tickets shall be determined by the Company with the consent of the Regulator.

An authorisation to sell Tickets shall be in the form of a written Retail Sales Agent Authorisation and shall be subject to such terms and conditions (including terms and conditions relating to the remuneration of persons by the Company in respect of the sale by them of Tickets, and the time, form and method of such remuneration) as may be determined by the Company with consent of the Regulator and specified in the authorisation.

3.2 A person (other than the Company) shall not sell, offer or expose for sale or invite an offer to buy or have in his possession for sale Tickets unless he is the holder of a Retail Sales Agent Authorisation under this Section entitling him to do so.

3.3 A person shall not sell or offer for sale a Ticket to a person under the age of eighteen years, or invite from such a person an offer to buy a Ticket.

3.4 Any person may apply for a Retail Sales Agent Authorisation to sell Tickets as a Retail Sales Agent by first filing with the Company an application on a form approved by the Company, giving all the information required on the form. The application may request authorisation for the Company to investigate the applicant’s suitability including credit and criminal records. Canvassing will disqualify.

3.6 Before licensing an applicant, the Company shall consider the factors set out below. In considering these factors, the Company shall seek to determine which applicants will best serve the economical and efficient operation of The National Lottery through their Ticket sales. If the facts in respect of a particular applicant which are relevant to any of these factors lead the Company to determine that contracting with the applicant would not so promote the economical and efficient operation of The National Lottery, consonant with the public interest, or would not serve the public interest, convenience, or trust, the Company may deny the application.

a) The Company shall consider the financial responsibility and security of the person and the person’s business or activity, creditworthiness and integrity in past financial transactions.

b) The Company shall consider the physical security of the applicant’s place of business to determine that Tickets which are sold to the applicant, and the proceeds from Ticket sales, will be kept safe.

h) The Company shall consider the veracity and completeness of the information submitted with the retailer’s application.

3.12 No person other than a duly licensed Retail Sales Agent may sell Lottery Tickets except that a person who has lawfully purchased Tickets may make a gift of Lottery Tickets to another. Nothing shall prohibit the Company from designating certain of its employees to sell Lottery Tickets directly to the public.

3.13 A Retail Sales Agent shall not sell a Ticket from a book which has been delivered to another Retail Sales Agent.

3.14 A Retail Sales Agent may not sell a Ticket away from locations listed in his Retail Sales Agent Authorisation.

3.18 A Retail Sales Agent’s Authorisation may be revoked, suspended or its renewal rejected by the Company, for one or more or all of the outlets listed thereon for any one or more of the following reason:

   a) If the Retail Sales Agent has violated any provisions of law or these Rules as amended from time to time or terms of Retail Sales Agent Authorisation or any other directives of the Company.

However, if the Company does revoke a Retail Sales Agent Authorisation without notice and an opportunity for a hearing, the Company shall, by appropriate notice, afford the person whose Retail Sales Agent Authorisation has been revoked, an opportunity for a hearing within thirty days after the revocation order has been issued. As a result of any such hearing, the Company may confirm its action by revoking the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation or it may order the restoration of such Retail Sales Agent Authorisation. The decision of the Company is final. Upon notice of revocation, the Retail Sales Agent shall surrender immediately to the Company his Retail Sales Agent Authorisation and other National Lottery materials supplied to him by the Company.
3.20 Retail Sales Agents shall be entitled to a sales commission in such percentage or amount as specified in the Licence.

3.21 A Retail Sales Agent's Authorisation is personal to that Retail Sales Agent and the rights and obligations granted shall not be assigned, transferred, sub-contracted, charged or otherwise disposed of in any manner by the Retail Sales Agent, nor shall the Retail Sales Agent attempt to do any of the same. If there is a significant change in the nature of a Retail Sales Agent's business, the Retail Sales Agent must notify the change immediately in writing to the Company. Upon consideration of the change, the Company, at its discretion, may confirm the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation or require the Retail Sales Agent to make an application for retention of the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation.

3.22 If ownership of a Retail Sales Agent's business changes so that the shareholder(s) at the time of issue of the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation cease to have a majority shareholding, the change must immediately be notified to the Company with an application for retention of the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation. The Company, at its discretion, may decide to retain or revoke the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation.

3.23 If the ownership of a Retail Sales Agent's business changes such that the shareholder(s) at the time of issue of the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation at some subsequent time allow their shareholding to fall to 80% or less of the shareholding of the business, the Company shall be notified immediately of such change in writing. The Company may, at its discretion, request an application for retention of the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation.

3.24 In the event that the Company denies a request to retain a Retail Sales Agent Authorisation, the persons in control or who are in ownership or otherwise entrusted with the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation of said business are to deliver forthwith said Retail Sales Agent Authorisation and any other material given by the Company to the field sales representatives and to terminate all sales of Tickets or other Lottery business until otherwise notified by the Company.

3.25 In the event that a Retail Sales Agent wishes to surrender his Retail Sales Agent Authorisation for any reason, he may do so by giving one month’s notice to the Company of his intention, during which time a representative of the Company will call at the Retail Sales Agent’s premises to collect the Retail Sales Agent Authorisation and all property of the Company and to effect a reconciliation of the accounts.

3.26 The Company may authorise special Retail Sales Agents in conformity with the law. A special Retail Sales Agent Authorisation is one subject to such conditions or limitations as the Company, at its discretion, may deem prudent and which is consonant with the general welfare of the people, and the operations and integrity of the Company. 3.28 No Tickets may be sold after the announced close of a Game, unless specifically authorised by the Company.

3.29 No Ticket shall be sold to any person under the age of eighteen, but this shall not be deemed to prohibit the purchase of a Ticket for the purpose of making a gift by a person eighteen years of age or older to a person less than that age. Any Retail Sales Agent who knowingly sells or offers to sell a Lottery Ticket or share to any person under the age of eighteen shall be liable to prosecution.

3.30 All Ticket sales shall be final and no reimbursement shall be made for sold Tickets.

Should the back of a draw Ticket not be filled out or be illegible, another Ticket will be drawn in its place.

Should an incomplete Ticket bear sufficient legible information to enable useful enquiry with a view to have the omissions supplied, the Company will make all reasonable efforts to do so according to procedure.

The omissions must, however, be supplied in time to enable the Ticket claim entry to a draw that will allow payment of any Prize won within 90 days of the announced end of the relevant Instant Lottery Game.

Should any Ticket be rejected during or following a draw, the sole remedy shall be to select another Ticket to replace the rejected Ticket according to procedure.

The Company will make all reasonable efforts to ensure that claimed entry Ticket winners are entered into the relevant draw. The Company however, accepts no responsibility for lost or misplaced Tickets.

4.17 No Ticket shall be purchased by, and no Prize will be paid to, any board member, officer or employee of the Company or any contractor or subcontractor involved in the production of Instant Lottery Tickets for the Company or any other person prohibited by the Act.

If such a person becomes the owner of a Lottery Ticket he shall not be eligible for any Prize. If any Prize is awarded, such a Prize shall be returnable to the Company.

4.18 No right of any person to a Prize drawn shall be assignable, except that payment of any Prize drawn may be paid to the estate of a deceased Prize winner, and except that any person pursuant to an appropriate judicial order may be paid according to said judicial order. The Company shall be discharged of all liability upon payment of a Prize pursuant to this rule.

4.19 Until such time as a signature and corresponding name are entered into the places on the rear portion of a Lottery Ticket which has been sold, the Ticket shall be deemed to be owned by the bearer of the Ticket. When a signature and corresponding name are entered into the places on the rear of the Ticket designated therefore, the person whose name and signature appear thereon shall be deemed to be the owner of the Ticket and shall be entitled to any Prize attributable to the Ticket. Only a correct name may be used, the use of a nom de plume or pseudonym may render the Ticket ineligible for a Prize.

If more than one name appears on the rear of the Lottery Ticket, one of those persons whose name appears thereon must be designated by mutual consent of the Ticket holders to receive payment. This may be done by indicating the name to which payment is to be made by an indication on the claim form and by the signature on the claim form of all other persons whose name appear on the rear of the Ticket. The Company for its purposes will recognise only one (1) person as the owner of a Ticket. If a Ticket is presented to the Company that does not have a name appearing on the back of the Ticket, payment will be made to the name appearing on the claim form submitted with the Ticket.

In the event that there is an inconsistency in the information submitted on the claim form and/or on the winning Ticket, the Company shall make an investigation and withhold all winnings which may be due to the Ticket owner until such time as the claimant satisfies the Company that he is the proper person to whom the Prize should be paid.

4.20 Proof of identity of Prize claimant may be required.

4.21 All National Lottery Tickets are subject to Lottery validation criteria at any stage prior to Prize payment. The Company reserves the right to withhold payment of Prize until it is entirely satisfied as to the validity of any Ticket and the claimant’s bona fides.

4.22 Whereas people under 18 years of age may be the owner of a Ticket, payment of all Prizes will be to the parent or legal guardian unless otherwise expressly authorised by the Company.

4.23 The Company may use the names, addresses, and photographs of winners in any Lottery promotion, with the agreement of said winners.

4.24 All Prizes shall be paid within a reasonable time after the claims are verified by the Company.

4.25 Certain Prizes may be paid by annuity determined by the Company and published in the Game Rules. In no circumstances will the payment of such Prize money be accelerated beyond its normal dates of payment. The first payment will be made as soon as practical after the Prize award. Subsequent annual instalment payment will be made thereafter on the anniversary dates of the first payment in accordance with the type of Prize awarded. The Company may, at any time, delay any payment in order to review a change of circumstances relative to the Prize awarded, the payee, the claim, or any other aspect.

4.26 The Company will announce a termination date for each Instant Lottery Game after which no further Tickets may be sold, a final acceptance date for draw-entries, and the date of any final National Lottery Prize Game. Such announcement or announcements will be disseminated through media used to advertise or promote the Game or through other normal communications media.

4.27 The Game Rules include the total number and value of Prizes available for each Prize amount in the relevant Scratch Card Game, together with the approximate odds of winning any particular Prize amount. The information is based on the Scratch Card Game as designed and is based on the number of Tickets specified in the respective Game Rules.

The number and value of Top Prizes is guaranteed to be in agreement with the Game Rules for each Scratch Card Game.

The actual number of Tickets in each Scratch Card Game is subject to immaterial variations due to production, printing, security and audit measures in bringing Scratch Card Games to market.

As a result, there can be immaterial variations in the number and value of prizes other than Top Prizes, and in the weighted average prize percentage and of the approximate odds of winning a Prize. For Games in market, the number of prizes available, and the odds of winning a prize, varies as Tickets are sold and Prizes won. Games may be withdrawn from market prior to a complete sell-out.
5. Conduct of Draws

5.1 All draws and games may be attended by members of the public subject to invitation or written request. The Company reserves the right to limit the number of attendants at any draw or game.

5.2 Tickets bearing a symbol (e.g. a star) in a predetermined number of play panels as defined in the Game Rules are eligible to enter a Preliminary Draw to determine the entrants into a Final Draw leading to the winning of a Prize, as determined in the Game Rules or to a National Lottery Prize Game.

5.3 Each Preliminary Draw will be conducted in accordance with procedures set down by the Company.

5.4 The format, intervals and location of Preliminary Draws may vary from time to time, as decided by the Company and will be publicly announced.

5.5 A Ticket eligible for inclusion in a Preliminary Draw will be a Ticket that conforms to the following criteria:

   a) The Ticket has been individually sealed in a designated correctly stamped envelope posted to arrive at The National Lottery draw-entry address no later than 10am on the day of the draw.

   or

   b) The Ticket has been individually sealed in a designated envelope and the envelope inserted along with another sealed designated envelope or envelopes containing individual Tickets in one outer correctly stamped and sealed cover to arrive at the National Lottery draw-entry address no later than 10 am on the day of the draw.

   c) The Ticket has been enveloped and sealed as in (a) or (b) and is hand-delivered to Lottery Headquarters no later than 10 am on the day of the draw.

5.6 A Ticket arriving by any means or under any conditions other than above, may be rejected for inclusion in a draw in which case there will be no referral or correspondence.

5.7 In the event of a Ticket arriving correctly enveloped and sealed, but too late for inclusion in a particular Preliminary Draw, it will be securely held for inclusion in the next Preliminary Draw where applicable.

5.8 All entries will be thoroughly and randomly mixed in an appropriate draw receptacle prior to any draw.

5.9 All draw procedures will be conducted under security conditions.
5.10 Each Preliminary Draw will consist of a designated number of envelopes or Tickets being drawn by an official of the Company, or a Company appointee, in the presence of two other officials of the Company and an appointed independent observer.

5.11 Each drawn envelope will be opened in the presence of at least two Company officials and an appointed independent observer and the Ticket number immediately logged. Should an envelope contain more than one Ticket, one Ticket only will be drawn and logged and that Ticket will qualify as being drawn.

5.12 Each drawn Ticket will be subjected to a validation process.

5.13 To be eligible for inclusion in any Final Draw or National Lottery Prize Game, a Ticket drawn in a Preliminary Draw must conform to the following criteria:
   a) The Ticket is a genuine National Lottery Ticket, which has been purchased through an authorised Retail Sales Agent.
   b) The Ticket bears the correct symbol or symbols denoting draw-entry eligibility or satisfies whatever other draw-entry eligibility criteria that may be decided from time to time by the Company.
   c) The Ticket passes all the validation tests of the Company.
   d) The Ticket has been legibly completed with the owner’s name, address and signature.

5.14 In the event that a drawn Ticket fails any of the above criteria, it will be rejected for inclusion in any further draw or game and another Ticket will be drawn in its place.

5.15 Each drawn and validated Ticket will be sealed in a special envelope and, except in those cases where the Final Draw is held immediately after the Preliminary Draw, the sealed envelopes will in turn be sealed in a special container and the container will be held under security conditions until immediately prior to the applicable Final Draw.

5.16 At the end of the Preliminary Draw all undrawn Tickets will be securely transported for destruction under supervision.

5.17 Each Final Draw will be conducted in accordance with procedures set down by the Company.

5.18 The format, intervals and location of Final Draws may vary from time to time as decided by the Company, and will be publicly announced.

5.19 Tickets included in a Final Draw will be Tickets drawn in a Preliminary Draw and deemed valid.

5.20 A Final Draw format will be the transfer of all envelopes from the special container to a draw receptacle, and the subsequent drawing from the draw receptacle by an official, or appointee of the Company, of a decided number of envelopes, with at least three full revolutions of the draw receptacle taking place before the draw commences.

5.21 All Final Draws will be conducted in the presence of at least two Company officials and an appointed independent observer.

5.22 When an envelope is drawn, it will be opened, and the name and address of the Ticket owner publicly announced.

5.23 Each Final Draw Prize will consist of a Prize as defined in the Game Rules or an invitation to the owner of the drawn Ticket, as defined in these General Rules, to attend at, and participate in, a National Lottery Prize Game appropriate to that Final Draw.

5.24 In the event that an invitee or invitees are unwilling to participate in a National Lottery Prize Game or to appoint, where rules allow, or have appointed by the Company, a proxy to participate on their behalf, or are found to be precluded from ownership of a Ticket under the Act, the invitee shall be declared ineligible and the Ticket void. In such an event a reserve Ticket(s) will be drawn in accordance with the normal procedures of the Company.

5.25 National Lottery Prize Game invitees will be contacted in accordance with Company procedures and advised of the date, time and venue of the relevant National Lottery Prize Game.

5.26 The format, intervals and locations of National Lottery Prize Game may vary from time to time as decided by the Company, and will be publicly announced.

5.27 Each National Lottery Prize Game will be conducted in the presence of at least two Company officials and an appointed independent observer.

5.28 The Company reserves the right to vary the format of a National Lottery Prize Game including the number of eligible entrants to be drawn and the value and number of Prizes, subject to the approval of the Regulator.

5.29 Participants in a National Lottery Prize Game will be the owners of Tickets drawn in a Final Draw who have been invited to, and have agreed to participate in, a National Lottery Prize Game, or in exceptional circumstances, their proxies.

5.30 A proxy will be substituted to participate in a National Lottery Prize Game in place of and on behalf of an invitee if:

   a) An invitee is contacted but, for a reason considered valid by the Company (e.g. illness, a bereavement, etc) is unable to attend or participate:

       or

   b) An invitee cannot be contacted in time;

       or
c) An invitee has died in the interim between submitting the winning Ticket and the date and time of the National Lottery Prize Game; or

d) At the time of a National Lottery Prize Game an invitee is deemed to be under the influence of intoxicants or drugs or is otherwise deemed unfit to participate.

5.31 Only the invitee with the agreement of the Company, or the Company, has the right to appoint a proxy.

5.32 An acceptable proxy may be a close relative or friend of an invitee by agreement in writing with the Company, or a person appointed by the Company.

5.33 The final arbiter in the appointment of a proxy will be the Company.

5.34 In the case of an invitee transpiring to be under 18 years of age, a parent or guardian must act as a proxy, or, failing the availability or acceptability of either, the Company will appoint one.

5.35 A proxy must, prior to participating in the National Lottery Prize Game, sign a form assigning all rights to any Prize won, to the person he represents.

5.36 No official or employee of the Company or any person precluded from owning a Ticket under the Act may act as a proxy.
6. Draw-Based Games

6.1 Whereas these Game Rules apply to Draw-Based Games in the event of any conflict between these Game Rules and a specific set of Draw-Based Game Rules then the specific Draw-Based Game Rules will apply.

6.2 In addition to the above a Player does not have, nor does a Player acquire, any proprietary interest or ownership rights in any combination of numbers on a Draw-Based Game ticket or a playslip whether or not the combination contains winning numbers in that Draw-Based Game.

7. Other General Rules

This Section sets out the remaining General Rules of the National Lottery.

7.1 The Company’s decisions and judgement in respect of the determination of a winning Ticket or of any other dispute arising from the payment or awarding of Prizes shall be final and binding upon all participants in the Lottery unless otherwise provided by law and these General Rules. In the event a dispute arises relative to the winning Ticket, a claim from, the payment, or the awarding of any Prize, the Company may withhold payment of the Prize winnings until a decision has been reached.

7.2 In the event that a dispute between the Company and the Ticket owner occurs as to whether the Ticket is a winning Ticket, and if the Ticket Prize is not paid, the Company may, solely at the Company’s option, replace the disputed Ticket with an unplayed Ticket (or Ticket of equivalent sales price from any other current Game). This shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for the owner of the Ticket (except as otherwise may be provided by the law or these General Rules).

7.3 The Company’s decisions shall be final and binding in the event of any controversy or confusion in the interpretation and application of these General Rules or of any other procedure employed by the Company.

7.4 The Company may amend, modify or otherwise change these General Rules and, subject to the consent of the Regulator and upon full compliance with law, said amendments, modifications or changes shall become as effective and applicable as if part of the original General Rules.

7.5 In purchasing a Ticket, the customer agrees to comply with the law of the Republic of Ireland, these General Rules, the relevant Game Rules and final decisions of the Company, and all procedures and instructions established by the Company for the conduct of the Game.

7.6 The terms “Irish National Lottery” or “National Lottery” or their equivalent in Irish, or any term closely resembling them whether in the Irish or the English language, are the property of the Regulator and it is an offence for any person other than the Company to use them in connection with a Game.
7.7 The Company or any authorised Retail Sales Agent may refuse to sell Tickets to any person without giving reasons.

7.8 Any person who alters or attempts to alter a Ticket with a view to obtaining a Prize, or any other person who purchases a Ticket and is not entitled to do so, is liable to criminal prosecution.
